Dear Ronald,

Congratulations! We are pleased to announce that AT&T Procurement, as part of our 2006 Recognition Program, has selected Global Energy & Technology, Inc. to be recognized for outstanding achievement in the category of Customer Service. The attached Certificate of Recognition details these achievements, which contributed significantly to our success in delivering world-class products and services to our customers in 2005.

The AT&T Recognition Program highlights outstanding performance in the areas of Creative Cost Management Solutions, Customer Service, Product & Service Performance, Supplier Diversity Excellence, Teamwork and Technical Innovation. Senior managers across the company work with AT&T Procurement to identify the "Best of the Best" among our supply partners.

Enclosed you will find a memento to commemorate this accomplishment. You can also look for an advertisement which lists AT&T's supplier award recipients in the June 7, 2006 edition of the Wall Street Journal.

Thank you again for your hard work in 2005. Please share our appreciation with your team that contributed to this success.

Sincerely,
